

Bowerdean Nursery School
'Learn to Play... Play to Learn.'

Core Experiences

We believe that children learn best through repetition. Adults enable the children to explore; they model different ways of doing things; they scaffold new attempts to repeat and investigate what works for each individual child; they support the child to refine their skills and apply them confidently.

